

21 days to a better me...day 11

Jesus said unto him, if thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. Mark 9:23

How do I become a better me? By Walking by Faith, Not By Sight

If we could see the answers to life's many questions, we wouldn't need faith. Often we need that faith that the world can't wrap its mind around because it just doesn't make sense. We are asked to trust in God whom we have never seen. We are called upon to believe words that were written centuries ago. We are expected to walk confidently, believing that our needs are met according to what The Word says.

Believing is seeing. If you believe it you will see it. If you don't you won't. It's that simple. Question, what do we have to lose by walking by faith...nothing, but we have everything to gain. At some point in our Christian lives, we have to decide that we are going to walk out our faith. No matter what the circumstances look like...no matter how often you are told no...regardless of how many doors are slammed in your face, at some point you have got to say, Lord I trust Your Word. We have to surrender our will, which is based on our finite wisdom, to the infinite wisdom of God.

If the Word says it, I am determined to believe it, no matter what. Is this going to be easy...of course not. If it were easy, everyone would be doing it. It takes an act of our will to trust God. What can you believe God for....today? Take it one day at a time!
